

Invitation to Express Interest as a Poster Programme Participant at the Russia International Tax
Week Moscow, Russia (April 2019)

Poster Programme at IFA

During past IFA Congresses, IFA has organised a Poster Programme. The IFA Russia Branch has expressed an interest in supporting a Poster Programme during the Russia International Tax Week 1-6 April 2019 (1-3 April – Moscow; 5-6 – St. Petersburg). For more information about the conference please follow the link <https://ifataxweek.ru/en/>.

Expression of Interest

The Poster Programme is open for students (including PhD students) graduating in international taxation who are writing a thesis on a theoretical or practical subject.

YIN Members that are interested to take part in the Poster Programme are invited to express their interest to Claudia Suter (claudia.suter@homburger.ch) to submit an application before 5 March 2019. The application should consist of the following items:

- . (i) A brief outline of 2-3 pages describing the scope of the thesis;
- . (ii) CV; and
- . (iii) One or more letters of recommendation, preferably by a professor/doctor of the university or institute who ideally is also an IFA member.

The above shall assist the Committee in the selection of the Participants.

Please note for a poster to be exhibit personal participation is required. An applicant may choose to participate at both conference locations (Moscow and St. Petersburg) or either of the two.

Eligibility requirements:

1. 40 years of age or below
2. Required to register for the 2018 Russia International Tax Week
4. Required to pay for their own travel and accommodation.