Nomination of IFA Branch reporters for 2022

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Although with a delay due to the Covid-19 pandemic, we are pleased to advise that the titles of the Subjects of the Cancun Congress, which will be held from 10-15 September 2022, have been phrased as follows:

- Subject 1: Sharing and shifting losses - The "new" profit shifting?
- Subject 2: Good Faith in domestic and international tax law

The General reporter on Subject 1 will be René Matteotti (Switzerland) and the General reporters on Subject 2 will be Sjoerd Douma (Netherlands) and Craig Elliffe (New Zealand). Please find attached the outlines on Subjects 1 and 2.

Your branch is requested to proceed as soon as possible with the nomination of reporters from your country. It is of course expected that a reporter will be selected because of his/her special knowledge in the field under discussion and his/her ability to prepare a report giving an accurate and balanced view of the situation in your country. IFA Branch reports must be delivered no later than 15 October 2021 to be taken into consideration by the General reporters and be included in the 2022-Cahiers.

It is expected that IFA Branch reporters will undertake to observe the time limit and that they are able to write their report preferably in English with a view to enlarging the readership of the Cahiers.

International Fiscal Association

We would like to bring to your attention a suggestion made by the Young IFA Network (YIN) Committee that Branches consider ways to involve YIN-eligible members of IFA in the preparation of Branch reports. These young members could assist the Branch reporters in various ways (research, collecting information) or, indeed, be named co-reporters.

We are happy to be able to count on your kind collaboration in nominating Branch reporters, and we look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

Jean-Blaise Eckert
